

892 Snowy Owl RCACS WARNING ORDER

- Activity: Level One and Two Activity Training Day
- Location: Royal Canadian Legion Branch 449, 1267 Queen St W, Alton
- Date(s): 0830-1630hrs, Sunday, December 12, 2021
- Activity Description: 892 RCACS will participate in a mandatory training day to include air rifle marksmanship training (including air rifle handling and familiarization shooting), team building, drill and ceremonial training and a movie.
- Cadet Dress: Appropriate civilian attire or Field Training Uniform (FTU), including winter appropriate outdoor clothing for wear while conducting marksmanship.
- Attendance: Level One and Level Two Cadets, Staff Cadets as Assigned.
- Meals: Meals Ready to Eat (MREs) will be provided for lunch. Please note that MREs do not have an egg-free menu option. If you are unable to eat egg due to an allergy or other dietary restriction, you are requested to bring a lunch with you.
- Transportation: Cadets are to arrive and depart by parental drop-off and pickup.
- Communications: Major Evan Read, Commanding Officer, 416-528-7241, in case of Emergency Only.

Notes:

- 1) Cadets will not be able to participate without their health card in their possession.
- 2) Please have proof of COVID-19 vaccination with you, this is a requirement for entry into the Royal Canadian Legion.
- 3) Cadets must wear a mask during training, and should arrive wearing it.
- 4) Cadets must complete the pre-screening process for students here prior to arrival at the training site: <https://covid-19.ontario.ca/school-screening/>